Our Mission

Mission, Vision, and Values

Sisters and Brothers Keepers, LLC is a Healthcare and Human Services agency based in Central Pennsylvania.

Objective

To work with the Office of Developmental Programs to provide services for Pennsylvanians with developmental disabilities.

Mission

Sisters and Brothers Keepers will promote a holistic environment to ensure the health, safety and wellbeing of all individuals supported as well as employees. In so doing, we will support people to achieve greater independence, choice, and much needed opportunities in their lives for the benefit of the local community and the entire Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

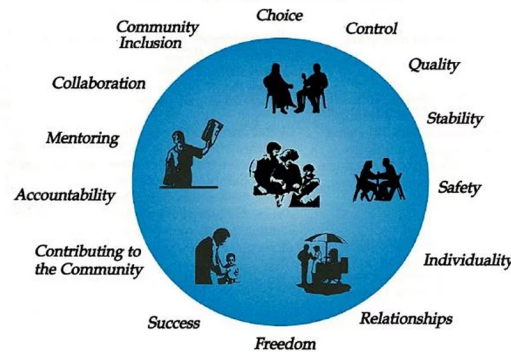

To increase accessibility of Health Care Services and supports for individuals as we would our own brother or sister.

We are dedicated to excellent and innovative delivery of person-centered services. We envision a workplace where all people are treated with dignity and respect, empowered with freedom and choice to be contributing citizens of their community.
